CHILDREN IN YACHT RACE

Sydney. - Two children aged four and three, will sail with their parents in the Sydney-Hobart yacht race, which begins on Fri-day. They are Corinne and Roderick O’Brien, whose father (Brian O’Brien) is a university lecturer. The O’Brien family lived on board the £14,000 ketch Wraith of Odin in Mosman Bay since it was launched 18 months ago. It will carry a crew of nine in the race.
